NIIF IFL – POSH Policy

A. SCOPE AND OBJECTIVE

NIIF Infrastructure Finance Limited (the “Company” or “NIIF IFL”) is committed to create an environment that promotes and fosters equal employment opportunities. It is committed to create a safe and healthy working environment that enables its employees to work without fear of prejudice, gender bias and Sexual Harassment. Towards this, it is essential that all employees deal with their colleagues and third parties with fairness and respect, keeping in mind that his / her behaviour can affect the internal and external reputation of the Company.

The Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013 and the rules made there under (“Act”) casts an obligation on all employers to have processes in place to prevent Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace as well as to provide for redressal of complaints of Sexual Harassment.

Any person making unwelcome physical contact and explicit sexual overtures, demanding or requesting sexual favours, making sexually coloured remarks or showing pornography against the will of a woman shall be guilty of the offence of Sexual Harassment and Section 354A of the Indian Penal Code 1860 prescribes punishment for this offence, ranging from simple to rigorous imprisonment, for term one year to three years, or with fine, or with both.

The right of women to protection from Sexual Harassment and the right to work with dignity are recognized as universal human rights by international conventions such as ‘Convention on the Elimination of all Forms of Discrimination against Women’ (CEDAW), which has been ratified by Government of India.

In order to prohibit, prevent and deter the commission of any act of Sexual Harassment at the Workplace and to provide the procedure for the redressal of complaints pertaining to Sexual Harassment, the Company has put in place this Sexual Harassment (Prevention and Redressal) Policy (“Policy”) which reflects the Company’s zero-tolerance to any form of prejudice, gender bias and Sexual Harassment at the Workplace.

This Act seeks to protect Women from Sexual Harassment at the Workplace. However, as the Company would like to keep the Policy gender neutral, in the event that any complaint is raised by a male Employee, such complaints would be addressed under the Company’s disciplinary Policy.

This Policy applies to all Employees (as defined herein) of the Company.

B. DEFINITIONS

1. “Aggrieved Woman / Complainant” in relation to a Workplace, means a woman, of any age, whether an Employee or not who alleges to have been subjected to any act of Sexual Harassment by the Respondent at the Workplace. 2. At least one-half of the total members so nominated shall be women.
3. The presiding officer and every member of the IC shall hold office for such period not exceeding three years, from the date of their nomination.
4. The member from NGO shall be paid such fees or allowances for holding the proceedings of IC as may be deemed appropriate by the CEO and as prescribed in the Act.
5. IC shall be responsible for (a) Investigating every formal written complaint of Sexual Harassment; and (b) Taking appropriate remedial measures to respond to any substantiated allegations of Sexual Harassment.
6. IC shall be centrally constituted for all Employees of the Company and shall operate from the Registered Office of the Company at 3rd Floor, UTI Tower, North Wing, GN Block, Bandra Kurla Complex, Bandra (East) Mumbai - 400051. As and when required, the CEO and / or Designated HR Head may constitute IC at such administrative units or offices of the Company as may be required.
7. An Aggrieved Woman / Complainant with a Sexual Harassment concern may make a formal complaint to the IC in writing through letter addressed to "Presiding Officer – IC, NIIF IFL, 3rd Floor, UTI Tower, North Wing, GN Block, Bandra Kurla Complex, Bandra (East) Mumbai - 400051 or alternatively can send an email on POSH@NIIFIL.IN_ , within 3 months from the date of occurrence of the alleged incident and in the case of a series of incidents, within a period of 3 months from the date of the last incident. IC may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, extend the time limit not exceeding 3 (three) months, if it is satisfied that the circumstances were such which prevented the Aggrieved Woman / Complainant from filing the complaint within the aforesaid period.

8. Any vacancy can be filled by such persons as nominated by the CEO and approved by the Board of Directors of the Company.

D. PROCESS OF FILING A COMPLAINT AND REDRESSAL MECHANISM

The detailed process and redressal mechanism is provided in Annexure A at the end of this Policy.

E. RECORD KEEPING

IC shall keep complete and accurate documentation of the complaint, its investigation and the resolution thereof. The incident would be documented and copy of full report of IC will be kept with the Designated HR Head.

F. CONFIDENTIALITY

The identity and addresses of the Aggrieved Woman / Complainant, Respondent and witnesses, any information relating to conciliation and inquiry proceedings, recommendations of the IC, and the action taken by the Company under the provisions of this Act shall not be published, communicated, or made known to the public, press and media in any manner whatsoever. All Employees and witnesses who are part of the IC proceedings will need to sign confidentiality agreements. Any person found to be in breach of the confidentiality obligations provided herein and / or under the Act, as the case may be, shall be liable for the consequences of such breach as prescribed under the confidentiality agreements or as per applicable law. In addition, under the Act, the Designated HR Head on behalf of the Company shall be entitled to recover Rs 5,000 as penalty from any person who breaches the obligation of confidentiality.

Information may be disseminated regarding the justice secured to any victim of Sexual Harassment without disclosing the name, address, identity, or any other particulars calculated to lead to the identification of the Aggrieved Woman / Complainant and witnesses.

G. APPEAL

In the event that any person is aggrieved from the recommendations made by the IC or non-implementation of such recommendations, she may appeal to the appropriate authority¹, as specified by the Act, within a period of 90 (ninety) days of the recommendations.

H. NON RETALIATION

While dealing with complaints of Sexual Harassment, the IC shall ensure that the Aggrieved Woman / Complainant or the witness(es) are not victimized or discriminated against by the Respondent or by others at the behest of the Respondent.

¹Appellate Authority shall mean the appellate authority notified under Section 2(a) of the Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Act, 1946 (20 of 1946).

Further, the Company does not tolerate retaliation in any form or manner against any Employee who, acting in good faith, reports suspected misconduct or raises concerns.

Any person who engages in such retaliation directly or indirectly, or encourages others to do so, may be subject to appropriate disciplinary action as per the terms of employment.

I. MALICIOUS COMPLAINTS OR FALSE EVIDENCE

This Policy has been evolved as a tool to ensure that in the interest of justice and fair play, our Employees have a forum to approach in the event of instances of Sexual Harassment. However, if on investigation it is revealed that the complaint was made with a malicious intent and with the motive of maligning the concerned individual / tarnishing his image in the Company or has produced any false evidence or forged or misleading documents and to settle personal / professional scores, strict action will be taken against the Aggrieved Woman / Complainant in accordance with Annexure A.

In case the Aggrieved Woman / Complainant is not able to substantiate the incident(s) with adequate proof and witnesses, such inability alone shall not render the complaint to be a false or malicious complaint.

J. COMPLAINTS HAVING ELEMENTS OF A CRIMINAL OFFENCE

The Designated HR Head shall provide assistance to the Aggrieved Woman / Complainant if the Aggrieved Woman / Complainant chooses to file a complaint in relation to the offence under the IPC or any other law for the time being in force.

K. CONFLICT RESOLUTION

In case of any conflict between the provisions of this Policy and the Act, the provisions of the Act shall prevail. However, if the Policy provides for a behavioural standard higher than that envisaged under the Act, then the Employees of the Company shall adhere to such higher behavioural standards as part of their terms of employment.

L. AMENDMENTS

The Company reserves the right to amend the Policy from time to time in order to comply with any applicable laws / rules / regulations that come into effect from time to time, in relation to Sexual Harassment and / or proceedings of the ICC. Any such amendment shall be made by the CEO of the Company, which shall be noted at the next Audit Committee of the Company held after such amendment.
